Reading and Use of English Part 5

1 B (I got my usual seat on the plane)

2 C (the only film I hasn't seen was being shown on every flight apart from this one)

3 D (Japanese and Korean tourists... with the same enthusiasm I'd had for my first view of Kyoto or Ulan Bator)

4 A (a sea of smiling, welcoming faces which quickly turned blank again when they realized I wasn't their relative...I'd lost the 'I'm back! Guess where I've been! Look on my face')

5 A (*despite your best efforts, it's impossible to completely lose touch with* home*)

6 D (the text is full of adjectives and descriptions based on his feelings on arriving home)

Vocabulary tip

*lose touch with someone: stop being in contact with someone, usually because a person has moved away, or over the years, contact between them has gradually stopped.

We used to be good friends but we lost touch with each other when I moved away.

Listening Part 1

- 1 B (I think it would be a good idea to have a break)
- 2 C (you can spend hours wandering the streets going in and out of the souvenir places, spending your money. Apart from that, there's not really much else to do)
- 3 C (*W: 'when I realized our flight was going to be held up* because of fog, I thought, oh no!...' M:- 'I know, I was worried too!'*)
- 4 B ('I think we've allowed far too much time to get there... Shall I see you at mine at about 8:30 instead of 8')
- 5 A (*'I could've done without* that presenter though, who seemed to think he was talking to a bunch of school kids'*)
- 6 C ('This is to inform passengers... that there will be two extra stops as stated on the departure board')
- 7 B ('I know you want to plan where we'll go in New Zealand. But, what happens if we arrive somewhere and we really like it and want to stay longer? If we've already booked a hotel in the next town, we'll have to move on')
- 8 A ('I was really ashamed of myself')

Vocabulary tip

*be held up: be delayed

When I heard our plane had been held up, I was worried.

*do without something: be able to survive, continue or succeed even though you do not have something.

There's no more milk left so we'll have to do without until tomorrow when we can go shopping.

Writing Part 2

2.2 Positive opinions

A good opportunity to get to know some famous works of art and to learn more about them

Some of the students have studied Pop Art and would get a real thrill from seeing the original pictures

Negative opinions

Many students think that exhibitions are boring

They have already studied Pop Art

They do not think the trip would be very educational
